1. [] met with Ukrainian emigre, Andre MELNYK (born Jakubova-Wola, Austria 12 Dec 1890 (201-)), on 31 July 62 at the request of the Luxembourg grand ducal family. MELNYK had previously been in contact with [] on an informal basis and had been assured of [] aid in the event of any danger to his personal security. MELNYK has been living in the Grand Duchy since 1947 at the invitation of Prince Felix in gratitude for the aid that MELNYK had extended to the brother of Prince Felix while both were in the Nazi Sachsenhausen prison camp. 2. MELNYK and his wife live quietly in a second floor apartment at 2, rue Verdun in Luxembourg City. His wife, Sophie nee FEDAK, is employed at the Luxembourg Kredietbank. MELNYK informed [] that he travels often throughout Europe to attend meetings of the Organization Nationalists (OUN/MELNYK) and that in 1957 he had made a trip to the United States and Canada. He inquired if the Luxembourg authorities would have any objections if the OUN/MELNYK held its annual congress in Luxembourg City in 1963. 3. Neither [] nor the [] possesses any extensive files on MELNYK or his organization. It would be appreciated if an overt history of the OUN from its beginnings (in French, German or English) and overt biographical data on Andre MELNYK be relayed to [] for passing to [] for their files. In addition it would be appreciated if a summary of OUN activities (including the three factions, MELNYK, BANDERA, and REBET) during the last five years could be relayed to the station by SR Division.
